POLITICAL BOSSES ACCUSED IN HUGE BOOTLEG SCANDAL

Secret Investigation by U. S. Involves Carloads of Whiskey.
Jury Probe Promised.

CHICAGO, May 31.—A liquor scandal involving national politicians and prominent prohibition enforcement officials was revealed here today.

The plot was unearthed during several months of secret investigation by Federal intelligence officials working under Col. A. C. Earnshaw.

Hundreds of carloads of whiskey have come into Chicago as the result of the plot, the investigation showed.

District Attorney Clynne, who has just returned here from Washington, where he conferred with Attorney General Daugherty, said evidence will be presented to a special grand jury.

Colonel Earnshaw announced that cases against four former prohibition agents were complete.

ADAGE ABOUT FURY OF WOMAN SCORNED, PROVEN

READING, Pa., May 31.—The old saw about the fury of a woman scorned exceeding anything in the lower regions was impressed on Elmer R. Deysher, at his home at Barto yesterday, when Constable Harry Hilsinger, of Reading, served a warrant on him.

He is charged by his wife, Maude Deysher, an Oklahoma school teacher, who traveled 1,800 miles to have him arrested, with desertion and non-support. Deysher was supposed to be single.

Alderman Oliver Wolf, this city, issued the warrant. The woman says that Deysher married her in Wellsburg, W. Va., in 1916, and later deserted her in Pittsburgh. After four years she found him in Kansas City, Mo., and after they lived together there for a time, she charged him with deserting a second time.

FRENCH REPUBLIC HAS PASSED 100,000 LAWS

PARIS, May 31.—France's present regime, known as the Third Republic, holds all legislative records insofar as this country is concerned. Since its institution in 1871 no less than 100,000 new laws and decrees have been introduced and successfully adopted by parliament.

The Second Empire, which preceded the Third Republic, saw the introduction of 45,000 new laws and the Second Republic 12,400.

PREFERS WASHTUB IN U. S. TO GREAT RICHES IN SWEDEN

Mrs. Hendrickson, of Waterville, Pa., Won't Go Back to Claim Fortune.

PHILADELPHIA, May 31.—"I would rather be a washerwoman in the United States than an heiress in Sweden." So declared Mrs. Jennie Hendrickson, of Waterville, Pa., just beyond the city limits.

"I could not think of going back to the old country," she declared, "after having lived in the good old United States. I know I would die of homesickness."

Word came to Mrs. Hendrickson a short time ago that two grand uncles had died in Sweden, leaving her a share in a large fortune, which, according to some reports, amounted to nearly $2,000,000. Mrs. Hendrickson, with her other relatives in this country, who would be beneficiaries of the estate, engaged a lawyer to go to Sweden to look after their interests. But the lawyer came back with the news that there would be no money for the heirs so long as they remained in this country.

"I'll never go back to Sweden, no matter how much money there is waiting for me," said Mrs. Hendrickson.

"I am more content with the few pennies I earn daily at the washtub than I would be with the money I would receive there as my share of the fortune. I have never been accustomed to much money, and if I suddenly became a millionaire I certainly would feel out of place."

G.O.P. FLEDGLINGS MAY FORCE SPLIT ON JOB REWARDS

New House Members Feel Veteran Legislators Are "Hogging" Patronage.

By International News Service.
Patronage distribution is causing friction between the old and the new Republican members of the House. The latter are expected to mix it up with the old members at the conference tomorrow night, and to call for a show down and pledge of more equitable distribution of House jobs.

The Republican conference was called for the purpose of considering the Longworth resolution providing that when an emergency exists, any tariff measure reported from the House Ways and Means Committee, or any part of such measure, if it carries an emergency clause, become effective as to rates from the date of its introduction into the House.

While the new members are interested in this legislation and are divided in sentiment as to its wisdom, they are interested also in getting a few House jobs for some of their job-hungry constituents. They claim that there exists a combine among the older members and the combine is "hogging" the available jobs. There is a suggestion and a reminder of the famous old "hog combine" of the House of Speaker Reed's days, when a few Republican leaders were charged with appropriating to themselves all House jobs and with parceling the jobs out to their friends. This combine caused a revolt among new members, and history seems about to repeat.

HUGE BOULDER DROPS; JUST MISSES AUTOISTS

ENGLEWOOD, N. J., May 31.—A giant boulder, weighing more than three tons, narrowly missed a number of automobiles on Hendrick Hudson driveway when it broke loose from the top of the Palisades and crashed into the Hudson river.

Patrolman Burt Whipple, of Interstate Park, heard the crash and held up traffic until the boulder passed, less than 300 feet from the Englewood ferry house.
